Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133).
- Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

- 1) ☐ Responsive to communication(s) filed on ____.
- 2a) ☒ This action is FINAL. 2b) ☒ This action is non-final.
- 3) ☐ Since this application is in condition for allowance except for formal matters, prosecution as to the merits is closed in accordance with the practice under Ex parte Quayle, 1935 C.D. 11, 453 O.G. 213.

Disposition of Claims

- 4) ☒ Claim(s) 1,2,4 and 5 is/are pending in the application.

DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on May 5, 2003 has been entered.

Claims 3 and 6 are canceled, and claims 1-2 and 4-5 are pending.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1-2 and 4-5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Haruhiko in view of Bossart et al.

Haruhiko discloses all the claimed limitations except the projection portions being obliquely arranged.

Bossart et al discloses a heat exchanger comprising a plurality of tubes having a plurality of obliquely arranged projection portions for the purpose of providing turbulence to improve heat exchange. As disclosed by Bossart et al, obliquely arranged projection portions are believed to be mere alternates of perpendicular projection portions, where the oblique arrangement provides less resistance to the longitudinal direction of the fluid flow to minimize pressure drop.

Art Unit: 3743

Since Haruhiko and Bossart et al are both from the same field of endeavor and/or analogous art, the purpose disclosed by Bossart et al would have been recognized in the pertinent art of Haruhiko.

It would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to employ in Haruhiko obliquely arranged projection portions for the purpose of providing turbulence to improve heat exchange as recognized by Bossart et al.

Response to Arguments

With respect to the three criteria for establishing a prima facie case of obviousness,

- 1) The suggestion or motivation to combine is clearly within the knowledge available to one of ordinary skill in the art (emphasis added), which applicants do not dispute. As stated in the previous Office actions, Bossart et al discloses both oblique and perpendicular projections, where it is well known in the art, i.e. thermodynamics and fluid dynamics that the oblique projection provides less pressure drop and less turbulence.
- 2) As noted above, one of ordinary skill in the art has knowledge of thermodynamics and fluid dynamics and would expect the oblique projection to provide less pressure drop and less turbulence.
- 3) The combination of Haruhiko and Bossart et al discloses all the claimed limitations.

The Examiner agrees the primary reference of Haruhiko does not disclose oblique protrusions, though the perpendicular protrusions extend across a width (emphasis added) of the path. However, the secondary reference of Bossart et al teaches oblique protrusions extending across the width of the path. Inherently, if a protrusion is oblique with respect to the path, the protrusion will also extend across the width of the path.

Conclusion

All claims are drawn to the same invention claimed in the application prior to the entry of the submission under 37 CFR 1.114 and could have been finally rejected on the grounds and art of record in the next Office action if they had been entered in the application prior to entry under 37 CFR 1.114. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL even though it is a first action after the filing of a request for continued examination and the submission under 37 CFR 1.114. See MPEP § 706.07(b). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
